

STRAIGHT SHOT.

Imagine a flow meter that can handle your difficult washout and runoff like pure water. Absolutely free flowing, straight through your system with nothing inside to clog things up. Well it's here, with Badger's Magnetoflow 7500P electromagnetic flow meter. The open flow tube offers you many advantages:

- No Moving Parts to wear out or get obstructed with debris. Completely eliminates maintenance and related downtime.
- No Expensive Strainers to buy and maintain.
- Low Pressure Drop. Move more product faster, using your existing pump system.

- Reusable Reclaimed Water. Put your valuable resources back to work in your process. Eliminate costly hauling.
- Reliable Batch Control. At an accuracy of +/- 0.5%, Magnetoflow outperforms most other meters in its class.
- Badger Quality. This meter is built to the same quality standards as our proven turbo meters.
